

MAGIS Society of Master Teachers

Honors these physicians and biomedical scientists dedicated to the care of others and the health needs of our society. They are our heroes, our master teachers, our mentors and our role models.

It is with great pleasure that the Nomination Committees for the MAGIS Society of Master Teachers of Georgetown University School of Medicine invite your votes for the 2010 MAGIS Master Teachers awards. The 2010 nominees have completed 20 years of faculty service to Georgetown University School of Medicine.

Drawn from the Latin motto for the Society of Jesus, MAGIS is a Latin adverb meaning "more greatly" and is a shortened form of the Jesuit motto "ad maiorem Dei gloriam" or "towards the greater glory of God." As Dr. Proctor Harvey so aptly said, "We should measure our lives by the G/T Ratio (or the Georgetown ratio) – the ratio of what one gives to what one takes from life." Master Teachers have vastly positive G/T ratios. They strive for excellence in all their activities and give selflessly to their students, their colleagues and their patients.

Please submit your ballot by completing the form below and FAX to (202) 444-0606, no later than April 23, 2010. Voting can also be conducted online at <http://www4.georgetown.edu/uis/keybridge/keyform/form.cfm?formID=3398>

The Award and Induction Ceremony will be held on Wednesday, May 20, 2010 at 6pm in the Gorman Auditorium and will be the first event of Graduation Week for the Medical School.
