

Georgetown University School of Medicine
Committee on Medical Education 2010 – 2011

Drawing on the expertise of faculty, students, and professional staff, the Committee on Medical Education, appointed by the Dean for Medical Education, is charged with institutional responsibility for ensuring the education of knowledgeable, ethical, skilful, and compassionate physicians. The Committee discharges this responsibility through ongoing and systematic oversight, management, and evaluation of the four-year curriculum leading to the M.D. degree.
