

Georgetown University
Institutional Review Board – Committee C
2010 – 2011

The role of the Georgetown University Institutional Review Board (IRB) is to safeguard the rights and welfare of all human subjects who participate in research conducted by Georgetown. It has the authority to disapprove, modify, or approve protocols based upon human subject protection. It requires annual progress reports from the investigator and oversees the conduct of the study.

Chair

Heidi Li Feldman, J.D., Ph.D.
Law Center

Katherine H. Martin, B.A.
Community Representative-
Unaffiliated

Daniela Radu, M.A.
Office of Regulatory Affairs

Vice Chair

Robert J. Bies, Ph.D.
McDonough School of Business

Susan F. Martin, Ph.D.

Institute for the Study of International Migration

Gretchen N. Rohr, B.A., M.Phil,
J.D.
Community Rep., Unaffiliated

Vice Chair

Irit Sinai, Ph.D.
Institute for Reproductive Health

Maureen McLaughlin, RN, Ph.D.
Nursing Research

Yashar Saghai, M.A.
Kennedy Institute of Ethics

Eric Langenbacher, Ph.D.
Government

Diana M. Owen, Ph.D.
Communication, Culture &
Technology

Sherrie Flynt Wallington, Ph.D.
Health Disparities Initiative/
Oncology